

Registration Now Open
www.gvahec.com

The Greater Valley Area Health Education Center proudly presents a training designed to introduce the implications of post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) as it relates to the soldier who is returning home from Afghanistan and/or Iraq.

“Painting a Moving Train”* ...

Working with Arizona Veterans of Iraq and Afghanistan and Their Families”
(* taken from a talk by General Robert Magnus, USMC Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps)

This training will discuss the recognizable signs and how healthcare professionals can apply therapeutic strategies and resources to assist the veterans and their families.

- When: Friday , November 20th 0900-1630
- Where: Arizona National Guard Conference Room; 1335 N. 52nd Street, Phoenix, AZ 85008
- Who should attend: Social Workers, Therapists, Primary Care Providers, and any healthcare professional who may provide services to veterans.
- Cost: $75 (includes lunch) CME and CEU's will be offered.

Complete agenda and registration will soon be available at www.gvahec.com

For More Information about this training program contact:
The Greater Valley Area Health Education Center (GVAHEC)
480-288-8260 or info@gvahec.com

Interested in delivering this training to the communities you serve?

If you are interested in becoming a trainer, please be sure to attend!

Lead Trainer: Dr. Harold Kudler, VISN 6 Mental Illness Research, Education, and Clinical Center at Duke University Medical Center

The Greater Valley Area Health Education Center is a program operated by Empowerment Systems, Inc.